From Tuesday July 19, to Saturday July 23, 1763.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th Day of July, 1763,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable David Viſcount Stormont, was, by His Majeſty's Command, ſworn of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

St. James's, July 23.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry and Clergy, of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, having been tranſmitted by the Right Hon. the Lord Strange, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordſhip, been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry and Clergy, of the County Palatine of Lancaſter,

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry and Clergy of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, truly ſenſible of the many and great Bleſſings derived to us by the Acceſſion of your Majeſty's Anceſtors to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and continued to us under your Majeſty's mild and indulgent Government, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our unfeigned Thanks for the late Inſtance of your Paternal Care of your People, in concluding, by a juſt and honourable Peace, a War that for many Years together had ſpread Miſery and Deſtruction through every Quarter of the Globe.

To attend to the Cries of an injured People; to avenge their Wrongs; and to defend their Rights; is the Part of a good and wiſe Governor. The War, entered into by your Royal Grandfather, and continued by your Majeſty upon this equitable Principle, was ſucceſsful beyond our moſt ſanguine Expectations, But to hearken to the Voice of Humanity amidſt the Horrors and Calamities of War, is the true Glory of a Conqueror; to ſheath the devouring Sword in the midſt of Victories, is the nobleſt Triumph; to ſtop the Effuſion of Human Blood is Friendſhip to Mankind; and Moderation to vanquiſhed Enemies, not only ſhews an undaunted Greatneſs of Soul, but alſo breathes the true Spirit of Chriſtianity; and when made to coincide with the real Intereſts of a People, as it is the ſoundeſt Policy, ſo it deſervedly entitles the Prince, in whoſe Breaſt it dwells, to every Teſtimony of Love and Gratitude, which they can give, or He receive.

We cannot, without the deepeſt Concern, ſee your Majeſty's upright and benevolent Intentions in ſome Meaſure fruſtrated by a Spirit of Diviſion and Diſcontent unhappily ſpreading itſelf at this Time amongſt us; but we hope the ſame Wiſdom that inſpired your Majeſty's Councils in reſtoring Peace Abroad, will ſpeedily and effectually re-eſtabliſh Tranquility and Harmony at Home. To concur in ſo ſalutary a Work is the Duty, is the Intereſt, of every undiſſembling Friend to Liberty, of every true Lover of his Country; by obſerving himſelf, and encouraging in others, a peaceable Behaviour in their reſpective Stations, an unreſerved Submiſſion to the Laws, and all dutiful Affection and legal Obedience to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentry, Clergy, and others of the County of Buckingham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Lord Le Deſpenſer, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentry, Clergy and others, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, holden at Aylesbury in and for the County of Buckingham, this 14th Day of July, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE preſume to offer our moſt reſpectful Acknowledgements of Duty and Gratitude, for the general Benefit we enjoy, under the Conſtitutional Government of a Prince ſo truely Britiſh; and we beg Leave to join the publick Voice of your loyal and affectionate Subjects, upon the Glorious and Advantageous Termination of the late War; an Event no leſs important than critical, in which your Majeſty's Wiſdom, Humanity, Magnanimity, and Moderation, appear equally manifeſt, by not only procuring to your Kingdoms the preſent Bleſſings of Peace, but by taking every Precaution to ſecure its Permanency. A War ſo Glorious, (though, at the ſame Time, rendered ſo formidable by its Extent) Succeſſes ſo rapid, (though purchaſed by great Effuſion of Blood and Treaſure) will furniſh to Poſterity ſhining Monuments of Britiſh Spirit and Intrepidity; yet when a Commercial Nation is loaded with Debts and Taxes, its Inhabitants diminiſhed, the Landed Intereſt peculiarly ſuffering by the Weight of every additional Tax, to conclude a Safe, Honourable and Advantageous Peace, will remain alſo a laſting Monument of the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Meaſures.

Gratefully conſcious of the ineſtimable Benefits, and of the Security we derive from ſo affectionate a Monarch, we cannot omit expreſſing our Deteſtation and and Abhorrence of any the moſt diſtant Marks of Diſreſpect to your Sacred Perſon; and to expreſs our firm Reſolution to vindicate, upon all Occaſions, the Dignity of the Crown, ſo neceſſary to ſecure the true Liberties of the People.

The following Addreſs of the Convention of the Royal Boroughs of that Part of His Majeſty's Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, having been tranſmitted by George Drummond, Eſq; as Præſes to the ſaid Convention, and, by their Appointment, to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordſhip, been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the General Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Annual Convention of the Royal Burrows now aſſembled, beg Leave unanimouſly to congratulate your Majeſty on the Birth of the Prince of Wales, an Event which we hope will be equally productive of domeſtick Happineſs to our Sovereign, and of publick Felicity to theſe Kingdoms.

We alſo beg Leave, with the like Unanimity, to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the happy Concluſion of a Peace, ſo fully adequate to the unparalleled Succeſs of the War.

We truſt, that the extenſive Acquiſitions, acquired by your Majeſty's Arms, and now ſecured by the Wiſdom of your Councils, will be improved in Time of Peace, not only to repair the Breaches made by a bloody and expenſive War, but likewiſe to increaſe the Commerce and Strength of Great Britain.

Permit us, Great Sir, at this Time, to declare, that our Gratitude and Affection to the beſt of Sovereigns, are heightened and animated by Reflecting on the ungrateful Return, which ſome of your deluded Subjects have made to the greateſt Effort of your Majeſty's Goodneſs and Affection for your People. Convinced by repeated Proofs of your Majeſty's Love of Liberty, we conſider the Conſtitutional Prerogative in your Hands, as a Barrier againſt Licentiouſneſs, and as a Security to the Liberty and Privileges of the People. In that Light we deem every Attack upon the Dignity of the Crown as a real Infringement of the Rights of the Subject.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Repreſentatives of the Royal Burrows of Scotland in a General Convention aſſembled.

Signed in Name, in Preſence and by Appointment of the General Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland, by

Geo. Drummond, Præſes.
